

Saxonettes Add Spirit To School

A new word has been added to the vocabulary of North High students this year—Saxonette.

Saxonettes are a small group of 50 girls whose purpose is to add to the spirit of North High. They are members of the school's first drill team.

Drill team members were selected last spring on the basis of grades, citizenship, and conditions. Uniforms were designed, then paid for through a candy sale.

Mrs. Gwen Jones, sponsor of the Saxonettes, began working with the drill team during the summer school. The girls practice every day during the school year and perform at home football games along with the Saxon Marching Band.

Army Pvt. Daniel S. Saucedo, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Saucedo, 1116 W. 216th St., was assigned Sept. 30 to the 3414th Medical Company at William Beaumont General Hospital, El Paso, Tex. Saucedo entered the Army in March, 1964.
